

Can we still connect to Electronic Declaration System with username and password assigned by State Revenue Service? 3/7/24

It was announced in November 2023 that the Electronic Declaration System (EDS) is switching to electronic identification tools and only a limited number of persons will be able to connect to EDS with the username and password assigned by the State Revenue Service (SRS). In response to taxpayers' questions about the proposed changes, the SRS has issued a letter of explanation. Read on to find out more.
